Housed underground in an authentic 1936 subway station, the New York Transit Museum is the largest museum of public transportation in the country. Visitors can board vintage subway and elevated cars, sit at the wheel of a city bus, step through a time tunnel of turnstiles and much more! The Museum's Education Department offers a wide range of children's weekend workshops, family programs and guided tours and lectures — all free with paid Museum admission.

HOURS

Tuesday–Friday: 10 am to 4 pm
Saturday–Sunday: Noon to 5 pm
Closed Mondays and major holidays

ADMISSION

Adults $6; children 3-17 and seniors 62 and over $4;
Museum Members free; Seniors free Wednesdays

DIRECTIONS

The Museum is located at the corner of Boerum Place and Schermerhorn Street in Brooklyn Heights
