Please be aware, not all disabilities are visible.

Please Offer a Seat
(It’s not only polite, it’s the law.)

In every subway car and bus there are seats designated as “Priority Seating.” The Americans with Disabilities Act requires that these seats be made available to people with disabilities.