TYPE OF SOLICITATION: IFB

DOCUMENT AVAILABILITY DATE: 01/10/2023

SOLICITATION TITLE: Paratransit Contingency / Recovery Services

DESCRIPTION: New York City Transit (“NYCT”) paratransit service operates 24-hours, 7-days per week under the name "Access-A-Ride" ("AAR"). In accordance with the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”) and as governed by the Federal Transportation Authority (“FTA”), NYCT provides origin-to-destination, demand responsive, shared ride paratransit service for individuals with disabilities who meet the eligibility criteria set forth in the ADA. AAR service is provided through contractors using two different approaches: dedicated service and nondedicated service. Dedicated service providers are known as Primary Carriers and their only business is to transport NYCT AAR customers using NYCT-owned vehicles. Non-dedicated providers such as Broker Car Service providers perform AAR service in concert with their existing operations utilizing vehicles not owned by NYCT. Contingency-Recovery Paratransit Service will provide day of service, at-once and/or pre-scheduled capacity overflow services for Access-A-Ride utilizing TLC FHV service providers and/or technology companies providing app-based dispatching of Green/Yellow Taxis and FHV’s including WAVs.
