HOW TO QUALIFY

Education and Experience Requirements: By the last day of the Application Period, you must meet the following requirements:

1. Successful completion of a four-year, full-time apprenticeship in the construction, repair and maintenance of elevators and/or escalators recognized by the New York State Department of Labor, the U.S. Department of Labor; or any apprenticeship council that is recognized by the U.S. Department of Labor; or
2. Three years of full-time satisfactory experience at the journey level (i.e., a fully-trained, knowledgeable, proficient and competent mechanic) in the maintenance, inspection, testing, alteration and repair of electric and hydraulic passenger or freight elevators, escalators, and associated electro-mechanical equipment; or
3. Two years of full-time satisfactory experience at the journey level as described in paragraph “2” above, plus the completion of one of the following listed below before obtaining your journey-level experience:
 - a. Two years of full-time satisfactory experience performing work described above in “2” as a mechanic’s helper, apprentice or trainee; or
 - b. Graduation from a recognized trade school or technical school, with a major course of study in electromechanical, electrical or electronic technology, or a closely related field totaling 600 hours; or
 - c. Graduation from a vocational high school, with a major course of study in electro-mechanical, electrical or electronic technology, or a closely related field; or
 - d. An associate degree or a higher-level degree, from an accredited college or university with a major course of study in electro-mechanical, electrical or electronic technology, or a closely related field.

If you have qualifying part-time experience, it will be credited on a prorated basis.

The vocational high school, technical school, or trade school must be approved by a State’s Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

Test Site Education and Experience Response Form: On the date of the multiple-choice test, you will be required to document that you met the education and experience requirements by the end of the application period for this examination. You may also be required to complete additional forms regarding the education and experience requirements at the time of appointment. You will be given the multiple-choice test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are marked “Not Qualified,” your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

Foreign Education Fact Sheet (required only if you need credit for your foreign education for this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation, as well as instructions on how to submit this evaluation are listed in the Foreign Education Fact Sheet, which will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a “document-by-document” (general) evaluation of your foreign education. Your foreign education evaluation must be submitted directly to NYC Transit’s Examinations Unit by the service completing the evaluation. Foreign education evaluations received directly from applicants will not be accepted.

Application Period Opened: December 1, 2024

You may also visit our website at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Foreign Education Fact Sheet.

Note: If you have earned a higher-level degree in the United States that supersedes the level and type of education required to meet the qualification requirements, you do not need to submit a foreign education evaluation. However, you must indicate that you have completed the higher-level degree in the United States; proof of acceptance into an academic program or school is not sufficient to determine satisfactory equivalency.

THE TEST

You will be given a qualifying multiple-choice test and a competitive practical skills test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass the qualifying multiple-choice test and the competitive practical skills test. Only those who meet the qualifying education and experience requirements and pass the qualifying multiple-choice test will be scheduled to take the competitive practical skills test. Your score on the competitive practical skills test will be used to determine your place on the eligible list.

You will be scheduled to take the multiple-choice test on one of the dates listed in the above “Test Date” box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the “Special Test Accommodations” subsection below.

Veterans’ or Disabled Veterans’ Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans’ or Disabled Veterans’ Credit should be requested at the time of application but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans’ or Disabled Veterans’ Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The multiple-choice & practical skills tests may measure your knowledge, skills and abilities in the following and other related areas:

- Electrical Equipment: Knowledge of proper maintenance, troubleshooting, and repair techniques of electrically operated equipment utilizing safe work practices
 - Example: Locating a defect using point-to-point troubleshooting
- Electrical Tools: Knowledge of how to use a multimeter properly and safely
 - Example: Placing the leads and how to correctly set up the multimeter
- Electrical Theory/Schematics: Knowledge of electronic and electrical theory and schematic reading
 - Example: Utilizing Ohm’s Law to calculate current
- Mechanical Equipment: Knowledge of proper maintenance, troubleshooting, and repair techniques of mechanical equipment utilizing safe work practices
 - Example: Repairing a broken chain or doors that are out of alignment
- Mechanical Tools: Knowledge of how to safely utilize tools when repairing equipment
 - Example: Using a screwdriver to remove a screw

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

You must submit an application during the application period, and applications will not be accepted in person. Applicants who apply online and wish to request a Fee Waiver must only complete the Online Applications Steps 1 through 4 below.

Online Applications:

1. If you are not an active MTA employee, apply using www.mymta.info/exams by the last day of the application period (Active MTA employees can apply using the MTA Business Service Center (BSC) employee portal at www.mymta.info). Note: The application system may not function properly with mobile devices or tablets. For best results when applying, please use the latest version of Microsoft Edge, open a new window, and avoid having multiple tabs open in the same window.
2. To apply, log into your existing account, or create an account if you do not yet have one.
3. Follow the steps to submit an application.
4. A confirmation number will appear on the same page after submitting your application (Save this number for future reference).

IMPORTANT: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you should not complete Steps 5, 6, or 7 below. Instead, by January 29, 2025, you must submit documentation supporting your fee waiver request by mail to Elevator and Escalator Maintainer, Exam No. 5610, MTA New York City Transit, 149 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, Attn: Exam Administration, 3rd Floor, Room 3.600. You must include your full name, last 4 digits of your Social Security Number (SSN), your Applicant ID Number (if known), your online application confirmation number, and the exam title and number with your request. For fee waiver request documentation requirements, please refer to the Fee Waiver Request Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period.

5. Below the confirmation number, a Pay Examination Fee button will appear for you to click to open the payment page.
6. A major credit card or a bank card associated with a bank account must be used when paying the application fee, and this fee will appear on your credit or bank card statement as "MTA NYCT Exam Fee." Note: Disputing the application fee could result in removal from this examination, and it might affect your ability to apply online for any future examinations.
7. You will be sent a confirmation email after you submit payment for the application fee (Save this email for future reference).

Note: If you have trouble paying the application fee after submitting your online application, please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Online Payment Tutorial.

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the “Correspondence” section below.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special test accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which the multiple choice testing is expected to begin. Special test accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which the multiple choice testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the multiple-choice and/or practical skills test as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which MTA New York City Transit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability; or
7. Pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition.

To request a make-up test, submit your request with documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test (as attachments) by email to examsmakeups@nyct.com or by mail to the address in the “Correspondence” section below as soon as possible.

Late Filing for MTA New York City Transit Provisional Employees: Refer to the “Correspondence” section below to contact the Examinations Unit to determine the procedure for submitting a late application. You may submit a late application if you:

- are provisionally employed in the title for which the examination is administered and were absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave, or military duty; or
- were appointed provisionally to the title for which the examination is administered after the application period closed but before the date on which testing is expected to begin.
