Call for Artists

MTA Metro-North Railroad • Bronx Stations

Botanical Garden, Williams Bridge, and Woodlawn

MTA Arts & Design seeks images of artists' previous work to review in consideration for new permanent Percent for Art projects, in conjunction with the renovation of Botanical Garden, Williams Bridge, and Woodlawn stations on Metro-North's Harlem Line in the Bronx. An approved fabricator will translate the final artwork designs into durable media. The artworks are projected to be realized in glass and metal. An artist's prior experience with these materials will not be taken into consideration when reviewing images.

Tricia Wright, Morning Glory, Evening Splendor, 2019, glass, MNR Crestwood.

Dan Funderburgh, Eureka, 2016, aluminum, MNR Fordham.

SELECTION PROCESS

A selection panel comprised of arts and design professionals will select finalists to develop original proposals. Finalists will be given site specifications and a detailed overview of the project to create a proposal for site-specific artwork for the stations, for which they will receive an honorarium of $1,250. Following the selection panel's review of proposals, one artist per station will be selected to receive the commission.

The budget for design and fabrication of the artwork at each station is to be determined. The selected artist will receive an artist fee and be required to produce final designs, select a fabricator and oversee the fabrication and installation of the artwork, with project management by MTA Arts & Design.
