Application Period Opened: July 1, 2025

Special Working Conditions: Railroad Stock Workers may be required to work various shifts including nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(This brief description does not include all of the duties of this position.)

SALARY AND BENEFITS

The current minimum salary for Railroad Stock Worker is $26.98 per hour for a 40-hour work week increasing to $38.55 per hour in the sixth year of service. These rates are subject to change. There are two assignment levels within this class of positions. Appointments will be made to Assignment Level I. After appointment, employees may be assigned to the higher assignment level at the discretion of MTA New York City Transit. The benefits of this position include, but are not limited to, night and weekend salary differentials, paid holidays, vacation and sick leave, a comprehensive medical plan and a pension plan.

HOW TO QUALIFY

Experience Requirements: By the last day of the Application Period, you must meet the following requirements:

1. Three years of full-time satisfactory experience as a stock assistant, stock clerk, stock worker or shipping and receiving clerk in an industrial, manufacturing, or wholesaling warehouse or similar large-scale environment; or
2. Four years of full-time satisfactory experience as a stock assistant, stock clerk, stock worker or shipping and receiving clerk in a retail environment which primarily stocks automotive, machine, marine maintenance tools, production parts, or plumbing, hardware or sheet metal supplies; and/or manual or power maintenance tools.

Up to one (1) year of experience performing at the supervisory or managerial level overseeing the work described in “1” or “2” above can be substituted for up to one (1) year of the experience described in “1” or “2” above.

Experience which involves only incidental warehousing and/or stocking experience, or customer service at a retail store, such as a sales associate or cashier is not acceptable.

If you have qualifying part-time experience, it will be credited on a prorated basis.

Test Site Experience Response Form: On the date of the multiple-choice test, you will be required to document that you met the experience requirements by the end of the application period for this examination. You may also be required to complete additional forms regarding the experience requirements at the time of appointment. You will be given the multiple-choice test before we verify your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are marked “Not Qualified,” your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

THE TEST

You will be given a multiple-choice test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine your place on the eligible list.

You will be scheduled to take the test on one of the dates listed in the above “Test Date” box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the “Special Test Accommodations” subsection below.

Application Period Opened: July 1, 2025

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The multiple-choice test may measure your knowledge, skills and abilities in the following and other related areas:

- General Warehousing Practices and Procedures: Knowledge of receiving, checking, classifying, storing and distributing materials and supplies; shipping, loading and unloading; operating material-handling equipment and utilizing safe work practices
 - Example: Keeping storage areas and materials neat and orderly, ensuring a safe work environment
- General Warehousing Documents: Knowledge of processing paperwork and reports, and keeping records
 - Example: Entering data into stock-tracking computerized inventory management systems
- Written Comprehension: Ability to understand written English words and sentences
 - Example: Reading and understanding a Bill of Lading
- Written Expression: Ability to use English words or sentences in writing so others will understand
 - Example: Documenting a purchase order, requisition or stock discrepancy
- Short-Term Memorization: Ability to remember information, such as words, numbers, pictures, and procedures. Pieces of information can be remembered by themselves or with other pieces of information
 - Example: Memorizing common units of measurement, storage locations or binning numbers
- Problem Sensitivity: Ability to tell when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as the elements of the problem
 - Example: Exercising caution when transporting hazardous materials
- Number Facility: Involves the degree to which adding, subtracting, multiplying, and dividing can be done quickly and correctly
 - Example: Correctly counting materials in a bin
- Inductive Reasoning: Ability to combine separate pieces of information, or specific answers to problems, to form general rules or conclusions
 - Example: Understanding why storeroom procedures are important and forming appropriate conclusions
- Information Gathering: Ability to correctly follow a rule or set of rules to arrange things or actions in a certain order. The rule or sets of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations
 - Example: Following step-by-step procedures on how to properly bin an item
- Visualization: Ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are moved or rearranged. It requires the forming of mental images of how patterns or objects would look after certain changes, such as unfolding or rotation. The task is to predict how an object, set of objects or pattern will appear after the changes are carried out
 - Example: Understanding how the view of the shelving unit will change when facing it compared to a different angle of view
- Deductive Reasoning: The ability to apply general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense

- Example: Applying MTA New York City Transit rules and regulations to situations to determine the appropriate action that must be taken

HOW TO OBTAIN AN APPLICATION

During the application period, you may apply online for this examination (see the Online Applications sub-section below). Or, if you are unable to apply online, you may obtain an electronic copy of the mail-in application package for this examination by emailing a request to examsunit@nyct.com during the application period. If you believe you have a special circumstance (e.g., a disability, military duty) that prevents you from applying as instructed below, please refer to the Special Circumstances Guide referenced in the “Special Test Accommodations” subsection below.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

You must submit an application during the application period, and applications will not be accepted in person. Applicants who apply online and wish to request a Fee Waiver must only complete the Online Applications Steps 1 through 4 below.

Online Applications:

1. If you are not an active MTA employee, apply using www.mymta.info/exams by the last day of the application period (Active MTA employees can apply using the MTA Business Service Center (BSC) employee portal at www.mymta.info). Note: The application system may not function properly with mobile devices or tablets. For best results when applying, please use the latest version of Microsoft Edge, open a new window, and avoid having multiple tabs open in the same window.
2. To apply, log into your existing account, or create an account if you do not yet have one.
3. Follow the steps to submit an application.
4. A confirmation number will appear on the same page after submitting your application (Save this number for future reference).

IMPORTANT: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you should not complete Steps 5, 6, or 7 below. Instead, by September 1, 2025, you must submit documentation supporting your fee waiver request by mail to Railroad Stock Worker, Exam No. 6601, MTA New York City Transit, 149 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, Attn: Exam Administration, 3rd Floor, Room 3.600.

You must include your full name, last 4 digits of your Social Security Number (SSN), your Applicant ID Number (if known), your online application confirmation number, and the exam title and number with your request. For fee waiver request documentation requirements, please refer to the Fee Waiver Request Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period.

5. Below the confirmation number, a Pay Examination Fee button will appear for you to click to open the payment page.
6. A major credit card or a bank card associated with a bank account must be used when paying the application fee, and this fee will appear on your credit or bank card statement as “MTA NYCT Exam Fee.” Note: Disputing the application fee could result in removal from this examination, and it might affect your ability to apply online for any future examinations.
7. You will be sent a confirmation email after you submit payment for the application fee (Save this email for future reference).

Application Period Opened: July 1, 2025

Note: If you have trouble paying the application fee after submitting your online application, please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Online Payment Tutorial.

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the "Correspondence" section below.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special test accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which the multiple-choice testing is expected to begin. Special test accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which the multiple-choice testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the multiple-choice test as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which MTA New York City Transit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability; or
7. Pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition.

To request a make-up test, submit your request with documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test (as attachments) by email to examsmakeups@nyct.com or by mail to the address in the "Correspondence" section below as soon as possible.

Late Filing for MTA New York City Transit Provisional Employees: Refer to the "Correspondence" section below to contact the Examinations Unit to determine the procedure for submitting a late application. You may submit a late application if you:

- are provisionally employed in the title for which the examination is administered and were absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave, or military duty; or
- were appointed provisionally to the title for which the examination is administered after the application period closed but before the date on which testing is expected to begin.
