JOB DESCRIPTION:

Bus Maintainers - Group B, under supervision, maintain, inspect, test, diagnose, alter, rebuild and repair electrical, electronic, mechanical, hydraulic, pneumatic and air conditioning equipment of MTA New York City Transit's buses, trucks and other motor vehicles. They inspect, test, alter and repair diesel and gasoline engines, hybrid natural gas/electric engines/motors, inverters, high pressure fuel systems, clutches, transmissions, axles, generators, compressors, air conditioning systems, brake assemblies, door wheelchair lifts, and electrical and mechanical accessories, align, adjust and/or repair wheels, steering equipment and suspension systems; reline and adjust brakes and clutches; diagnose and repair modular automotive multiplex systems; operate power machine tools and portable power tools; use electronic diagnostic tools; use hand tools; record data and keep records; use computerized equipment; drive motor vehicles; may travel for training and vehicle inspection functions; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Bus Maintainers - Group B and environmental conditions experienced are: crawling under buses and working in confined areas; lifting and carrying heavy equipment; moving out of the way of moving buses and overhead cranes; manually removing and installing parts and bolts in confined areas; making visual inspections of equipment; distinguishing colors; reading gauges and prints; responding to sounds from warning bells, horns and vehicle movement; and working outdoors in all weather conditions.

Special Working Conditions: Bus Maintainers - Group B may be required to work various shifts, including nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(This brief description does not include all of the duties of this position.)

SALARY:

The current minimum salary for Bus Maintainer - Group B is $37.16 per hour for a 40-hour work week increasing to $43.72 per hour in the sixth year of service. These rates are subject to change. You will receive the minimum salary based on the current union contract and your promotion date.

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION:

This examination is open to each employee of MTA New York City Transit who on the first date of the multiple-choice test:

1. Is or has been employed in the non-competitive title of Transit Mechanical Apprentice and has satisfactorily completed the 2-year Transit Mechanical Apprentice program in bus maintenance and is employed in the Department of Buses; or
2. Is permanently (not provisionally) employed in or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the eligible title of Maintainer's Helper – Group B, in the Department of Buses, and has been permanently employed in such title for not less than one year; and
3. Is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

The admission of employees who completed the Transit Mechanical Apprentice program as a noncompetitive Transit Mechanical Apprentice is pursuant to Section 52(12) of the New York Civil Service Law.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your department's Human Resources representative. You may be given the test(s) and/or assessment(s) before we verify your eligibility. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

This examination is not open to employees of MaBSTOA or MTA Bus Company, or to employees of MTA agencies other than MTA New York City Transit.

THE TEST:

You will be given a competitive multiple-choice test and a qualifying structured interview. A score of at least 65% is required to pass the competitive multiple-choice test and the qualifying structured interview. Only those who meet the qualifying education and experience requirements and pass the competitive multiple-choice test will be scheduled to take the qualifying structured interview.

You will be scheduled to take the multiple-choice test as indicated in the above "Test Date" box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below.

Your score on the competitive multiple-choice test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the competitive multiple-choice test and the qualifying structured interview to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus ½ point for each three months of completed continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services, in non-competitive and permanent competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the first date of the competitive multiple-choice test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The competitive multiple-choice test and qualifying structured interview may measure your knowledge, skills and abilities in the following and other related areas:

- Automotive Theory: Knowledge of maintenance, troubleshooting and repair of buses, automobiles and trucks, including their engines, transmissions, running gears, air-conditioning, and electrical and mechanical accessories, utilizing safe work practices
 - Example: Using proper automotive maintenance techniques to maintain a bus
- Tool Usage: Ability to properly select and safely use materials, machinery and tools of the trade
 - Example: Using a screwdriver to remove a screw
- Schematics and Calculations: Ability to read and interpret schematics containing specifications, drawings, relevant mathematical calculations, and other related areas
 - Example: Using a circuit schematic to trace the circuit you are working on
- Vehicle Component Maintenance: Ability to install, repair, and adjust vehicle components utilizing safe work practices
 - Example: Performing a wheel alignment
- Electrical Equipment: Knowledge of proper maintenance, troubleshooting, and repair techniques of electrically operated equipment utilizing safe work practices and meters
 - Example: Using a multimeter to determine if a fuse is blown

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION:

If you believe you meet the requirements in the "Eligibility to Take Examination" section, you may submit an application during the application period. If you believe you have a special circumstance (e.g., a disability, military duty) that prevents you from applying as instructed below, please refer to the Special Circumstances Guide referenced in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below. Applications will not be accepted in person.

Online Applications:

1. If you are an active MTA employee, apply using the MTA Business Service Center (BSC) employee portal at www.mymta.info by the last day of the application period (non-active MTA employees and applicants requesting a fee waiver must email us by the last day of the application period at examsunit@nyct.com for application instructions). Note: The application system may not function properly with mobile devices or tablets. For best results when applying, please use the latest version of Microsoft Edge, open a new window, and avoid having multiple tabs open in the same window.
2. Once you have logged in, click on the My Job Search ribbon and then click on Exams (non-Railroad).
3. Follow the steps to submit an application.
4. Active MTA employees must pay the application fee via payroll deduction.
5. A confirmation number will appear on the same page after submitting your application and authorizing a payroll deduction (Save this number for future reference).

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the "Correspondence" section below.

If you submit an application for this promotion examination and you also submit an application for the open competitive examination for Bus Maintainer - Group B, Exam No. 6613, you will only be permitted to take the test(s) for this title one time.

Late Applications: Refer to the "Correspondence" section below to contact the Examinations Unit to determine the procedure for submitting a late application if you meet one of the following conditions:

1. You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and are unable to apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
2. You become eligible after the above application period, but before the first test date.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special testing accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin. Special testing accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which MTA New York City Transit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability; or
7. Pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition.

To request a make-up test, submit your request with documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test (as attachments) by email to examsmakeups@nyct.com or by mail to the address in the "Correspondence" section below as soon as possible.

CORRESPONDENCE:

Change of Contact Information: It is critical that you keep your contact information (i.e., telephone number, mailing address and email address) current with MTA New York City Transit. You may miss important information about your exam(s) or consideration for appointment or promotion, including important information that may require a response from you by a specified deadline, if we do not have your correct contact information. To update your contact information, you may:

1. Email us at examsunit@nyct.com with the subject "Contact Info Update;" or
2. Mail your request to the address at the end of this section.

Your request must include your full name, exam title(s), exam number(s) and your old and new telephone numbers, mailing and email address. All MTA employees must also visit the employee portal at www.mymta.info to update their contact information through the "BSC."

All other correspondence should be sent to examsunit@nyct.com and must include "Bus Maintainer - Group B, Exam No. 6711" in the Subject. Alternatively, you can mail your correspondence to the following address:

Attn: Exam Administration, 3rd Floor, Room 3.600

TEST SITE REQUIREMENTS:

Admission Letter: An Admission Letter will be emailed to you at least 10 days before the first date listed in the above "Test Date" box. If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 10 days before this date, you must email a request for a duplicate Admission Letter to examsunit@nyct.com. A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the test.

Applicants must keep their email address up to date. Please refer to the "Correspondence" section above for instructions on how to update your email address and other contact information.

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

You are also not permitted to use on site any medical assistive devices, including those that give notifications or alerts, or that vibrate, without the prior express written authorization of MTA New York City Transit. You can contact MTA New York City Transit by email at: examsmakeups@nyct.com.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

Proof of Identity: You must present your MTA New York City Transit employee ID when you arrive to take the test.

THE TEST RESULTS:

If you pass the competitive multiple-choice test and qualifying structured interview and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by email of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED:

From the non-competitive title of Transit Mechanical Apprentice: At the time of promotion, you must be employed or have been employed in the title of Transit Mechanical Apprentice.

From the competitive title of Maintainer’s Helper – Group B: At the time of promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title of Maintainer’s Helper – Group B and you must be permanently employed in that eligible title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for that eligible title. Additionally, you must have served permanently in the eligible title of Maintainer’s Helper – Group B for at least one year.

Driver License Requirement: At the time of promotion, you must possess a Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York.

Within 14 days of promotion, you must obtain a Learner Permit for a Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no airbrake restrictions, or any other disqualifying restrictions. Additionally, a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement, no airbrake restrictions, and no other disqualifying restrictions must be obtained within 120 days of promotion. Failure to do so may result in termination or a return to your previously held permanent title. If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension, or an accident record, you may be disqualified.

The Class A or Class B CDL with a passenger endorsement, no airbrake restrictions and no other disqualifying restrictions must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title. Such license must not include any restrictions which would preclude the performance of Bus Maintainer - Group B work.

Commercial Motor Vehicle Driving Experience in the Military or New York National Guard: If you are an active member or former member (discharged in the past year) of the military or New York National Guard and have experience driving a Commercial Motor Vehicle in the military or New York National Guard, you may be eligible for a waiver of the New York State commercial driving skills test through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles. If you believe that you may be eligible for this waiver, you must apply for the waiver through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Medical Requirement: Medical guidelines have been established for this position. Candidates will be examined to determine whether they can perform the essential functions of the position. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable such person to perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted, and if promoted, you will be subject to random drug and alcohol tests for the duration of your employment. Additionally, if you have tested positive on a drug or alcohol test or had a refusal to test during pre-employment or while employed by a Federal DOT-regulated employer during the applicable period, you must have completed the Substance Abuse Professional (SAP) evaluation, referral and education/treatment process required by federal law in order to be promoted to this safety-sensitive position.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Training: You may be required to undergo a formalized training course during your probationary period. Failure to successfully complete the training course may result in termination or being returned to your previously held permanent title.

Probationary Period: You will be required to complete a probationary period. If you do not successfully complete the probationary period, you may be terminated or returned to your previously held permanent title.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION:

Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after appointment, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination, and they are accessible through our website at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm
