The MTA is completing its switch from MetroCard to OMNY. All Access-A-Ride (AAR) customers, except temporary customers, will receive an AAR OMNY ID card.

Cash will continue to be accepted as a payment option for AAR trips. Visit mta.info for complete details on fare information.

To AAR Coupon Users: AAR will continue to accept vouchers already in circulation. The exact end date will be announced at a later date. If you currently receive AAR vouchers through your employer or a pre-tax benefit provider, they'll reach out with details on how to move your benefit to your new AAR OMNY ID card.
