

Call for Artists

MTA New York City Transit • BMT Complex
Broadway Junction Station A C J L Z

MTA Arts & Design seeks images of artists' previous work to review in consideration for a new public art opportunity at Broadway Junction Station, in Brooklyn. All artistic mediums will be considered. Finalists will develop a site-specific proposal for three areas within new construction. The artwork selected will be translated into mosaic (~1,000 sf total) by an approved fabricator. The commission does not require an artist have prior experience with the durable medium identified for the permanent installation. The new commission will be in dialogue with an existing glass and mosaic artwork: Al Loving's Brooklyn, New Morning, installed in 2001.

Firelei Báez, Ciguapa Antellana, me llamo sueño de la madrugada. (who more sci-fi than us), 2018, glass mosaic, 163 St-Amsterdam Av, NYCT

Hilma's Ghost, Abstract Futures, 2025, glass mosaic, 42 St-Grand Central Station, NYCT

SELECTION PROCESS

A selection panel comprised of arts and design professionals will select finalists to develop original proposals. Finalists will be given site specifications and a detailed overview of the project to create a proposal for site-specific artwork for the station, for which they will receive an honorarium of $1,500. Following the selection panel's review of proposals, one artist will be selected to receive the commission.

The budget for design and fabrication of the artwork at the station is to be determined. The selected artist will receive an artist fee and be required to produce final designs, select a fabricator and oversee the fabrication and installation of the artwork, with project management by MTA Arts & Design.
