TYPE OF TEST:

Multiple-Choice Test

TEST DATE:

Multiple-Choice testing is expected to begin on Saturday, June 13, 2026

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Power Distribution Maintainers, under supervision, maintain, install, inspect, test, alter and repair the direct current power distribution cable systems and contact rail systems in MTA New York City Transit subways, elevated lines and yards. They install, maintain and inspect contact rail heaters, circuit breakers, third rail end approaches, wooden poles on the right of way, positive and negative cables, wires, relays and switches; inspect and replace insulators, protection boards and protection board brackets; bond negative rails; respond to emergencies and make emergency repairs; dig for and install ducts for cable installations; may perform welding and burning duties as required; drive a motor vehicle to and from work sites and load and unload vehicles as required; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Power Distribution Maintainers and environmental conditions experienced are: working on or near tracks having live 600-volt contact rails; walking along tracks in dimly lit areas; moving out of the way of moving trains; climbing and descending ladders; working on elevated structures, working outdoors in all weather conditions; operating machinery; and lifting and carrying heavy materials.

Special Working Conditions: Power Distribution Maintainers may be required to work various shifts, including nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(This brief description does not include all of the duties of this position.)

SALARY:

The current minimum salary for Power Distribution Maintainer is $37.43 per hour for a 40-hour work week increasing to $44.04 per hour in the sixth year of service. These rates are subject to change.

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION:

This examination is open to each employee of MTA New York City Transit who on the first date of the multiple-choice test:

1. Is permanently (not provisionally) employed in or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the eligible title of Track Worker or Transit Electrical Helper (only Transit Electrical Helpers employed in the Electrical Power Subdivision or Power Distribution Subdivision); or
2. Has, as a non-competitive Transit Electrical Apprentice, satisfactorily completed the 3-year Transit Electrical Apprentice program in the Power Maintenance Subdivision and is currently employed in the Power Maintenance Subdivision; and
3. Is not otherwise ineligible.

The admission of employees who are employed in the non-competitive title of Transit Electrical Apprentice in the Power Maintenance Subdivision is on a collateral basis pursuant to Section 52(14) of the New York Civil Service Law.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your department's

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Human Resources representative. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

This examination is not open to employees of MaBSTOA or MTA Bus Company, or to employees of MTA agencies other than MTA New York City Transit.

THE TEST:

You will be given a competitive multiple-choice test. The competitive multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or using paper and pencil/pen. A score of at least 65% is required to pass the competitive multiple-choice test.

You will be scheduled to take the test as indicated in the above "Test Date" box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below.

Your score on the competitive multiple-choice test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the competitive multiple-choice test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus $\frac{1}{2}$ point for each three months of completed continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services, in permanent competitive class titles or in non-competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the first date of the competitive multiple-choice test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The competitive multiple-choice test may measure your knowledge, skills and abilities in the following and other related areas:

- Power Distribution Equipment: Knowledge of the safe installation, maintenance and inspection of power distribution equipment
 - Example: Using proper Power Distribution techniques to safely maintain the third rail
- Tools and Measuring Devices: Knowledge of how to safely use tools and electrical measuring devices in power distribution work
 - Example: Using a screwdriver to safely remove a screw
- Electrical Principles and Theories: Knowledge of electrical principles and theories
 - Example: Utilizing Ohm's Law to calculate current
- Schematics and Mathematics: Ability to read circuit schematics and perform mathematical computations related to electrical work
 - Example: Reading a schematic to trace a power cable that feeds the third rail

For any account creation issues, you will receive onscreen prompts to contact the Examinations Unit. This review may require up to five (5) business days to be reviewed and resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived.

If you are requesting a fee waiver, you must, by May 14, 2026, submit documentation supporting your fee waiver request by mail to Power Distribution Maintainer, Exam No. 6716, MTA New York City Transit, 149 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, Attn: Exam Administration, 3rd Floor, Room 3.600. You must include your full name, last 4 digits of your Social Security Number (SSN), your Applicant ID Number (if known), your online application confirmation number, and the exam title and number with your request. For fee waiver request documentation requirements, please refer to the Fee Waiver Request Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period.

You must complete the entire application by midnight, Eastern Time, of the last day of the application period. If you have questions about applying for this examination, you may contact the Examinations Unit at examsunit@nyct.com.

Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide.

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the "Correspondence" section below.

If you submit an application for this promotion examination and you also submit an application for the open competitive examination for Power Distribution Maintainer, Exam No. 6615, you will only be permitted to take the test for this title one time.

Late Applications: Refer to the “Correspondence” section below to contact the Examinations Unit to determine the procedure for submitting a late application if you meet one of the following conditions:

1. You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and are unable to apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
2. You become eligible after the above application period, but before the first test date.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special testing accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin. Special testing accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which the Examinations Unit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability; or
7. Pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition.

To request a make-up test, submit your request with documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test (as attachments) by email to examsmakeups@nyct.com or by mail to the address in the “Correspondence” section below as soon as possible.

If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

Proof of Identity: You must present your MTA New York City Transit employee ID when you arrive to take the test.

THE TEST RESULTS:

If you pass the competitive multiple-choice test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by email of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

If you believe that your test results were rated incorrectly, you may submit an appeal of your score to the Examinations Unit, through the OASys. Your appeal must give specific reasons why your score should be higher. Your appeal may result in a higher or lower rating.

To access the appeal portal of OASys, please log into your OASys account at <https://a856-mtaexams.nyc.gov/OASysWeb/home> and use the following steps:

1. Navigate to the Dashboard for the Appeals tab.
2. Click the NEW APPEAL button to create and submit your appeal.
3. Select the exam from the Exam drop-down list, and
4. Select the exam part from the Exam Part drop-down list.
5. Select the reason for your appeal from the Appeal Reason drop-down list (if applicable).
6. Enter the details of your appeal by providing specific reasons why your score should be higher.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED:

From the competitive title of Track Worker or Transit Electrical Helper: At the time of promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in one of the eligible titles indicated in the above "Eligibility to Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in one of those titles or your name must appear on a Preferred List for one of those titles. Additionally, you must have served permanently in an eligible title for at least one year. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

From the non-competitive title of Transit Electrical Apprentice: At the time of promotion, you must be employed in the Power Maintenance Subdivision of MTA New York City Transit.

Driver License Requirement: At the time of promotion, you must have a Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York with no disqualifying restrictions that would preclude the performance of the duties of this title. If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension or an accident record you may be disqualified. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted, and if promoted, you will be subject to random drug and alcohol tests for the duration of your employment. Additionally, if you have tested positive on a drug or alcohol test or had a refusal to test during pre-employment or while employed by a Federal DOT-regulated employer during the applicable period, you must have completed the Substance Abuse Professional (SAP) evaluation, referral and education/treatment process required by federal law in order to be promoted to this safety-sensitive position.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Training: You may be required to undergo a formalized training course during your probationary period. Failure to successfully complete the training course may result in termination or being returned to your previously held permanent title.

Probationary Period: You will be required to complete a probationary period. If you do not successfully complete the probationary period, you may be terminated or returned to your previously held permanent title.

Application Receipt: You will be emailed a receipt immediately after you have applied for the examination. If you do not receive this receipt, check the "Junk", "Trash", or "Spam" folders for the primary email linked to your OASys account. If you are unable to locate the email, you can view a summary of the notification email by clicking the Notifications tab on your OASys dashboard. If you are still unable to locate the email, please email the Examinations Unit via the Contact feature available in OASys with a description of the issue, and include the exam number and your profile number located on your OASys Profile page. While on your Profile page, check that the email addresses you provided are correct and/or updated.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION:

Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after promotion, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination, and they are accessible through our website at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm
