TYPE OF TEST:

Multiple-Choice Test

TEST DATE:

Multiple-Choice testing is expected to begin on Saturday, November 7, 2026

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Fare Enforcement Agents, under supervision, perform surveillance, investigative and enforcement work to ensure passenger compliance with current fare policies of MTA New York City Transit. They check the validity of customers' receipts on New York City Transit revenue vehicles to ensure payment is made in accordance with existing fare policies; issue summonses to fare evaders and exercise resilience and de-escalation techniques with agitated customers who may have violated fare policy; investigate alleged violations of fare enforcement; participate in the monitoring and coordinating activities of team members and assist them as necessary; testify at hearings and in court regarding the details of summonses issued; provide route and fare-related information to customers, and assist and instruct them to use fare receipt issuance machines; record daily actions in memo books and prepare reports; perform special assignments as needed; operate a motor vehicle; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities and environmental conditions experienced by Fare Enforcement Agents are: standing for lengthy periods of time on moving buses; conducting visual inspection of documents; walking up and down stairs; frequently boarding and alighting buses; and working outside in all weather conditions.

Special Working Conditions: Fare Enforcement Agents may be required to work various shifts, including nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(This brief description does not include all of the duties of this position.)

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

The current minimum salary for Fare Enforcement Agent is $63,066 per annum for a 40-hour work week increasing to $97,021 per annum in the sixth year of service. These rates are subject to change. The benefits of this position include, but are not limited to, night and weekend salary differentials, paid holidays, vacation and sick leave, a comprehensive medical plan and a pension plan.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

Experience Requirements must be met by the last day of the Application Period. As per section 54 (2) of the New York State Civil Service Law, Education Requirements must be met by July 28, 2027.

1. A four-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization; and
2. Three years of full-time, satisfactory security experience primarily involving the enforcement of policies, procedures and regulations governing the behavior and actions of the general public, including the performance of associated investigations and the issuance of summonses or the writing of comprehensive reports.

If you have qualifying part-time experience, it will be credited on a prorated basis.

Education and Experience Exam: During the Education and Experience Exam (EEE), you may answer questions about your experience. If your experience was on a part-time basis working less than 35 hours per week, you will need to convert your part-time experience to full-time experience using the formula below. Once you have determined your full-time experience equivalent, use this amount to answer questions about your experience.

(number of hours worked per week/35) x (number of months worked)

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

For example, if you worked at a job for 21 hours per week for 12 months, you would make the following calculation:

$21/35 \times 12 = 7.2$ months.

You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (July 28, 2026) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience and Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in the Online Application System (OASys). Once you Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys, you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information on your Education and Experience Exam online.

If you do not Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys by midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (July 28, 2026), your examination will be considered incomplete, you will not receive a score, you will not be invited to subsequent portions of this examination (if applicable), and your application fee will not be refunded.

The high school, vocational high school, technical school, or trade school must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to applying. You may be given the test(s) and/or assessment(s) before we determine if you meet the qualification requirements. If you are marked "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

Foreign Education Fact Sheet (required only if you need credit for your foreign education for this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation, as well as instructions on how to submit this evaluation are listed in the Foreign Education Fact Sheet, which will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. Your foreign education evaluation must be submitted directly to MTA New York City Transit's Examinations Unit by the service completing the evaluation. Foreign education evaluations received directly from applicants will not be accepted. You may also visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Foreign Education Fact Sheet on our website.

Note: If you have earned a higher-level degree in the United States that supersedes the level and type of education required to meet the qualification requirements, you do not need to submit a foreign education evaluation. However, you must indicate that you have completed the higher-level degree in the United States; proof of acceptance into an academic program or school is not sufficient to determine satisfactory equivalency.

THE TEST:

You will be given a competitive multiple-choice test. The competitive multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or using paper and pencil/pen. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine your place on the eligible list.

You will be scheduled to take the test as indicated in the above "Test Date" box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The competitive multiple-choice test may measure your knowledge, skills and abilities in the following and other related areas:

- Written Comprehension: The ability to understand written sentences and paragraphs.
 - Example: Understanding written bulletins released by MTA New York City Transit.
- Written Expression: The ability to use English words or sentences in writing so others will understand.
 - Example: Writing incident reports regarding unusual occurrences.
- Problem Sensitivity: The ability to tell when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as the elements of the problem.
 - Example: Observing a person not paying their bus fare and recognizing it as a problem.
- Deductive Reasoning: The ability to apply general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense.
 - Example: Applying MTA New York City Transit rules and regulations to situations to determine the appropriate action that must be taken.
- Inductive Reasoning: The ability to combine separate pieces of information, or specific answers to problems, to form general rules or conclusions. It includes coming up with a logical explanation for why a series of unrelated events occur together.
 - Example: Identifying a suspicious and/or unsafe situation based on different issues observed to form a conclusion about the incident.
- Information Ordering: The ability to correctly follow a rule or set of rules to arrange things or actions in a certain order. The rule or sets of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations.
 - Example: Following MTA New York City Transit Rules and Regulations procedures in the correct order given.
- Spatial Orientation: The ability to tell where you are in relation to the location of some object or to tell where the object is in relation to you.
 - Example: Reading bus maps and determining the destination of the bus route.
- Memorization: The ability to remember information, such as words, numbers, pictures and procedure.
 - Example: Remembering details of a fare evasion incident on a bus.

- Customer Service: The ability to work with customers to assess their needs, provide information or assistance, resolve their problems, or satisfy their expectations.
 - Example: Providing travel directions to a customer.

HOW TO APPLY:

If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, apply using the Online Application System (OASys) at <https://a856-mtaexams.nyc.gov/OASysWeb/home>. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application, payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can apply to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts and you will receive a confirmation email with instructions to activate your account. For any account creation issues, you will receive onscreen prompts to contact the Examinations Unit. This review may require approximately five (5) business days to be reviewed and resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived.

If you are requesting a fee waiver, you must, by August 11, 2026, submit documentation supporting your fee waiver request by mail to Fare Enforcement Agent, Exam No. 7602, MTA New York City Transit, 149 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, Attn: Exam Administration, 3rd Floor, Room 3.600. You must include your full name, last 4 digits of your Social Security Number (SSN), your Applicant ID Number (if known), your online application confirmation number, and the exam title and number with your request. For fee waiver request documentation requirements, please refer to the Fee Waiver Request Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period.

You must complete the entire application by midnight, Eastern Time, of the last day of the application period. If you have questions about applying for this examination, you may contact the Examinations Unit at examsunit@nyct.com.

Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide which is located in the "Special Test Accommodations" section below.

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the "Correspondence" section below.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special test accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin. Special test accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which the Examinations Unit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability; or
7. Pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition.

To request a make-up test, submit your request with documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test (as attachments) by email to examsmakeups@nyct.com or by mail to the address in the "Correspondence" section below as soon as possible.

Late Filing for MTA New York City Transit Provisional Employees: Refer to the "Correspondence" section below to contact the Examinations Unit to determine the procedure for submitting a late application. You may submit a late application if you:

1. Are provisionally employed in the title for which the examination is administered and were absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave, or military duty; or

2. Were appointed provisionally to the title for which the examination is administered after the application period closed but before the date on which testing is expected to begin.
