APPLICATION FEE: $91.00

If you choose to pay the application fee with a credit/debit/gift card, you will be charged a service fee of 2.95% of the payment amount. This service fee is nonrefundable.

TYPE OF TEST:
Multiple-Choice Test

TEST DATE:
Multiple-Choice testing is expected to begin on Saturday, December 5, 2026

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Train Operators, under supervision, have direct responsibility for the safe, timely and proper operation of MTA New York City Transit multi-unit subway cars, subway service cars and trains in accordance with the rules, regulations and special instructions governing such operation. They operate trains in revenue and non-revenue road service, and in yard or terminal service; prepare trains for road service and switch cars in yards; in revenue road service, convey passengers over assigned routes; may open and close doors in stations and terminals; may make announcements; in non-revenue road service, operate work trains and revenue collection trains; in yards and terminal service, switch cars, prepare trains for road service and operate trains between yards and terminals; convey trains into facilities for inspection and repair, and through car washes for cleaning; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Train Operators and environmental conditions experienced are: climbing and descending ladders on and off the tracks, ascending and descending from trains and catwalks to roadbeds; walking along elevated sections of track; responding to audible signals such as alarm bells, train whistles, horns and radio conversation; responding to visual signals including distinguishing colored lights; using manual equipment related to train operation; remaining in a seated position for extended periods of time; and lifting heavy equipment.

Special Working Conditions: Train Operators may be required to work various shifts, including nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Train Operators must be available to work overtime as required.

(This brief description does not include all of the duties of this position.)

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

The current minimum salary for Train Operator is $41.16 per hour for a 40-hour work week increasing to $42.00 per hour in the second year of service. These rates are subject to change. The benefits of this position include, but are not limited to, night and weekend salary differentials, paid holidays, vacation and sick leave, a comprehensive medical plan and a pension plan.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

Experience and License Requirements must be met by the last day of the Application Period. As per section 54 (2) of the New York State Civil Service Law, Education Requirements must be met by July 28, 2027.

1. A four-year high school diploma or its educational equivalent, approved by the State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization; and
2. A Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York; and
3. One year of full-time satisfactory work experience that has been continuous with one employer.

If you have part-time satisfactory work experience that has been continuous with one employer, it will be credited on a prorated basis.

If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension or an accident record, you may be disqualified.

Education and Experience Exam: During the Education and Experience Exam (EEE), you may answer questions about your experience. If your experience was on a part-time basis working less than 35 hours per week, you will need to convert your part-time experience to full-time experience using the formula below. Once you have determined your full-time experience equivalent, use this amount to answer questions about your experience.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

(number of hours worked per week/35) x (number of months worked)

For example, if you worked at a job for 21 hours per week for 12 months, you would make the following calculation:

$21/35 \times 12 = 7.2$ months.

You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (7/28/2026) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience and Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in the Online Application System (OASys). Once you Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys, you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information on your Education and Experience Exam online.

If you do not Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys by midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (7/28/2026), your examination will be considered incomplete, you will not receive a score, you will not be invited to subsequent portions of this examination (if applicable), and your application fee will not be refunded.

The high school or vocational high school must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to applying. You may be given the test(s) and/or assessment(s) before we determine if you meet the qualification requirements. If you are marked "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

Foreign Education Fact Sheet (required only if you need credit for your foreign education for this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation, as well as instructions on how to submit this evaluation are listed in the Foreign Education Fact Sheet, which will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. Your foreign education evaluation must be submitted directly to MTA New York City Transit's Examinations Unit by the service completing the evaluation. Foreign education evaluations received directly from applicants will not be accepted. You may also visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Foreign Education Fact Sheet on our website.

Note: If you have earned a higher-level degree in the United States that supersedes the level and type of education required to meet the qualification requirements, you do not need to submit a foreign education evaluation. However, you must indicate that you have completed the higher-level degree in the United States; proof of acceptance into an academic program or school is not sufficient to determine satisfactory equivalency.

THE TEST:

You will be given a competitive multiple-choice test. The competitive multiple-choice test may be given at a computer terminal or using paper and pencil/pen. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine your place on the eligible list.

You will be scheduled to take the test as indicated in the above "Test Date" box. You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the "Special Test Accommodations" subsection below.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The competitive multiple-choice test may measure your knowledge, skills and abilities in the following and other related areas:

- Written Comprehension: Ability to understand written sentences or paragraphs.
 - Example: Understanding written bulletins released by MTA New York City Transit.
- Written Expression: The ability to use English words or sentences in writing so others will understand.
 - Example: Writing incident reports regarding unusual occurrences.
- Problem Sensitivity: Ability to tell when something is wrong or likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as elements of the problem.
 - Example: Recognizing that an object on the track may interfere with the normal operation of the train.
- Deductive Reasoning: Ability to apply general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense.
 - Example: Applying MTA New York City Transit rules and regulations to situations to determine the appropriate action that must be taken.
- Information Ordering: Ability to correctly follow a rule or set of rules to arrange things or actions in a certain order. The rule or sets of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations.
 - Example: Following the step-by-step instructions of a pre-trip inspection of a train.
- Spatial Orientation: Ability to tell where you are in relation to the location of some object or to tell where the object is in relation to you.
 - Example: Reading a subway map and understanding where stations are in relation to your location.
- Number Facility: Ability involving the degree to which adding, subtracting, multiplying, and dividing can be done quickly and correctly.
 - Example: Performing mathematical calculations using track markers to determine the current location.

- Visualization: The ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are moved or rearranged. It requires the forming of mental images of how patterns or objects would look after certain changes, such as unfolding or rotation.
 - Example: Understanding that the scene you saw in your front window is the same scene, just rotated when shown in your rear-view mirror after you pass the scene.
- Customer Service: The ability to provide information to passengers in a professional and courteous manner.
 - Example: Giving a passenger directions to a location.

HOW TO APPLY:

If you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, apply using the Online Application System (OASys) at <https://a856-mtaexams.nyc.gov/OASysWeb/home>. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application, payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can apply to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts and you will receive a confirmation email with instructions to activate your account. For any account creation issues, you will receive onscreen prompts to contact the Examinations Unit. This review may require approximately five (5) business days to be reviewed and resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived.

If you are requesting a fee waiver, you must, by August 11, 2026, submit documentation supporting your fee waiver request by mail to Train Operator, Exam No. 7603, MTA New York City Transit, 149 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, Attn: Exam Administration, 3rd Floor, Room 3.600. You must include your full name, last 4 digits of your Social Security Number (SSN), your Applicant ID Number (if known), your online application confirmation number, and the exam title and number with your request. For fee waiver request documentation requirements, please refer to the Fee Waiver Request Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period.

You must complete the entire application by midnight, Eastern Time, of the last day of the application period. If you have questions about applying for this examination, you may contact the Examinations Unit at examsunit@nyct.com.

Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide which is located in the "Special Test Accommodations" section below.

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the "Correspondence" section below.

If you submit an application for this open competitive examination and you also submit an application for the promotional examination for Promotion to Train Operator, Exam No. 7703, you will only be permitted to take the test(s) for this title one time. Please note that the promotional examination is only open to employees in certain job titles as described in the "Eligibility to Take Examination" section on the promotional Notice of Examination.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special test accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin. Special test accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which the Examinations Unit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability; or
7. Pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition.

To request a make-up test, submit your request with documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test (as attachments) by email to examsmakeups@nyct.com or by mail to the address in the “Correspondence” section below as soon as possible.

Late Filing for MTA New York City Transit Provisional Employees: Refer to the “Correspondence” section below to contact the Examinations Unit to determine the procedure for submitting a late application. You may submit a late application if you:

1. Are provisionally employed in the title for which the examination is administered and were absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave, or military duty; or
2. Were appointed provisionally to the title for which the examination is administered after the application period closed but before the date on which testing is expected to begin.
